

Biography

Melanie McLane

Melanie McLane is a second-generation REALTOR®, who is an appraiser, broker and educator. Recently awarded REALTOR® Emeritus status, she has been in real estate all of her adult life. A graduate of Kenyon College, Gambier Ohio, she holds the following designations and certifications: ABR, CRB, CRS, EPRO, GREEN, GRI, RAA, RSPS, PSA, SRES, SRS; she is also certified as a distance instructor (CDEI) and is an Appraiser Qualifications Board approved USPAP (Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice) Instructor. She has written numerous courses, both for her own use, and as works for hire for other educational companies including Hondros College and the National Association of Realtors (NAR), and several state realtor associations. She also served as a SME/author for the Pricing Strategy Advisor Course for NARA, as well as other NAR courses, including RSPS. She has served as President for her local association, West Branch Valley Association of REALTORS®; two terms as District Vice-President for the Pennsylvania Association of REALTORS®; and on various NAR committees, task forces, and forums. In 2008, she was inducted into the REBAC Hall of Fame as an instructor, and in 2012, she was named RSPS of the Year for her contributions to the RSPS course. Her local association has honored her with the “Spirit Award”, the “Outstanding Achievement Award” and twice with “REALTOR® of the Year.” In 2018, the Pennsylvania Association of REALTORS® named her REALTOR® of the Year. She continues to list, sell and appraise, as well as teach. In her free time, she enjoys gardening and spending time with her grandchildren.